CHICAGO BABIES TO HAVE PRESS AGENTS

Chicago June 23.—Chicago babies are to have their health administered to be a press agent. Bulletins were sent to Chicago newspapers yesterday by the secretary of the Civic Federation announcing that a "campaign of publicly and education" is about to be launched by this organization and the health department for the benefit of babies and mothers. Summertime tense disease and discomfort and sere death, to hundreds of babies, and it is to be the work of the "pressingent" to make known the exclusive merits of milk.

Chicago lost 1.579 babies during agent' to make known the exclusive merits of milk.

Chicago lost 1.570 bables during July. August and September of last year, states the builetin. And many of these bables might have been saved but for the ignorance of mothers caring for the infant children. The health department officials are determined to reduce the toll of last year. Many schemes have been devised but the most feasible plan seemed to be through the hands of a "piblicity man" generally known as the jures agent."

"This message must be carried through the 'river wards' and back yards," says the advance notice. "To carry it, the wiles of the professional advertiser will be brought into play.
